

Glimpses of Gospel Grace | July 17th

This session's quarterly book discussion will be over the topic of disunity and the polarization of our country and even more so Christians. We will be discussing the book by Scott Sauls, Presbyterian pastor and author, "Jesus Outside the Lines: A Way Forward for those who are Tired of Taking Sides." Polarizing, us-against-them discussions divide us and distract us from communicating lovingly with others. The author, like many of us, is weary of the bickering and is seeking a way of truth and beauty through conflicts. Join us July 17th at 3:00 in the chapel for a discussion surrounding this topic and book. Some books are available in the office for $12 or can be purchased via Amazon individually.

Glimpses of Gospel Grace is a quarterly opportunity where women are equipped to approach life's challenges with a gospel perspective while also providing tools through reading, discussion, and sharing. We have discussed so far the areas of mental health, grief, and human sexuality.
