Mission Updates:

Kameel & Rachel Kilada- Kameel returned from Egypt. His health is better and has been working on renovations at the seminary, leading seminars, working with two young pastors and preparing for the start of the school year.

Philippine Gospel Association- The center re-opened with a celebration. Food bags were distributed to the community that is still in the process of rebuilding from the hurricane. The children's ministry has begun for 4th, 5th and 6th grade students.

Francesco & Claudia Arco- No update at this time

Nancy Morse- No update at this time

Greg & Elizabeth Mook- Currently winding down a season of travel—heading out from Ohio on Friday after two months of visiting my family and heading back to Louisiana. Will head back to Lebanon on September 3rd! Requested prayer for travel mercies and as they return to the field and set up their new apartment. Prayers for good transitions and a good return into life in Lebanon. Prayer for their team as a few teammates from Australia are added this month. Finally, prayer for the country of Lebanon, the Lebanese people, and the refugees served. Prayers are needed for them to see Christ's love during a difficult economic time.

Isaac Suweny- Isaac has reported serious health issues as well as COVID restrictions. Dale has received several current emails from Isaac, however he did not provide the annual Porch article. Dale and Robin will set up Zoom meeting to converse with Isaac in August.

Brad & Sue Pearce- Bill spoke to Charlie about how well the ministry is doing. They report the organization is growing.

Boaz & Ruth Glad- No update at this time

Michelle Jankovich (YLL)- Michelle resigned from Young Life position in Liberty. She accepted a new position with Young Life in Platte county starting on August 1st. Charlotte will provide an article for the Porch. Carlin McNeley will be working in Michelle's position.

Robert Mulumbi- No update at this time

James & Lindsay Cottier- The Cottiers are working hard to grow the church. Joyce will continue to attend their services occasionally.

2023 Budget

The local missions will be separated from the other mission account starting in January 2023. Michelle Jankovich is moving from YL Liberty to Platte County. The 2023 budget will be sent to Michelle at Platte County. YL Liberty will have the opportunity to complete new forms to request financial support. Dale will send Isaac Suweny a renewal form for support. The budget amount for Isaac will be evaluated after the renewal paperwork is received. Renewal paperwork will be sent to all missionaries in August for the September deadline.
